AGAINST FREDERICKSBURG

Enemy Patrols Brushed Aside as Capital's Soldiery Advance

CAMP ORDWAY, Colonial Beach, Va, August 20 .- Patrols of an imaginary enemy, which existed only in the minds of the officers who are directing the maneuvers here, were brushed aside like so much underbrush today by the National Guard of the District of Columbia, which began the task of pushing its way to Fredericksburg through a country supposed to be filled with thousands of hostile troops. The command was operating, theoretically, as a brigade of infantry.

camp was abandoned. Every trooper ters by the scouts, was successfully it had not been for the war. overcoming the enemy's forces.

Five Hours of Battle.

Col. Young took a station some distance behind the advance guard. Orders began to fly thick and fast, directing reports came from the battalion tacking movement consumed about five hours, following which the officers par-ticipating in it formed themselves into a council of war to compare notes on the day's operations.

It was a surprise to the troops when they received the command to advance on Fredericksburg, for the encampment program provided for the more or less monotonous extended order of drill. The battailons didn't even stop a mo-ment on the three-acre field, on which they have been operating for the last few days.

It was a fine-looking regiment that came back into the camp a few minutes before mess time. Only a few minutes were consumed in shaking off the dust of a day's hard travel and putting away the equipment, when a dive was made for the mess tent.

Monday to Be Field Day.

There will be little deviation Monday afternoon from the drills and maneuvers. A field day has been planned. The paraphernalia for the event now is being set up on the old drill field, the most prominent structure of which is a wall twenty feet high which squads of troops will scale. One squad from each company will participate in Constable Plum has ordered their uniforms and equipment and rush back to the starting point.

Lafe Bud t' put dimmers on his blue serge suit.

Other events so far planned are: 100-yard dash, 220-yard dash, 440-yard dash, shelter tent pitching race, one squad to be entered from each company; three-legged race and a company relay race of 880 yards, each man to relay race of 880 yards, each man to run 220 yards.

The committee in charge consists of Capt. E. H. Brian, Capt. John E. Brooks, Capt. William H. Beckstein and Lieut. Frank B. Schlosser.

Capt. Herbert Bryson, Medical Corps,

N. G. D. C., has been designated as chief surgeon and sanitary officer of the camp during the absence of Maj. Luther H. Reichelderster, chief surgeon, ho has returned to Washington.

SAYS NATION IN DANGER

U. S. Ammunition Supply Not Enough for Hour's Battle, Speaker Tells Foreign War Veterans.

That the United States would be completely at the mercy of an army of rained European soldiers in the event of war was the declaration of George Gordon Moore, who recently was the guest abroad of Sir John French, commanding the British forces on the continent, at the national encampment of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, which concluded its sessions in Detroit yes-Mr. Moore declared that the United States has today not more than 200,000 effective men in the combined regular army and National Guard. "I doubt," he said, "if there is enough ammunition available for an hour's battle in modern warfare. Ninety per cent of our munition plants are within 150 miles of New York. These would be miles of New York. These would be taken over in thirty days after the landing of 300,000 trained European soldiers, and would prove to be almost a death blow to the nation. Mr. Bryan says that in case of war 2.500,000 men would rush to the nation's defense over night. I assert the same number would be slaughtered the next day by a trained army from abroad. War comes suddenly, and we should be prepared.

An invitation to attend the national conference of the National Defense League in this city immediately following the conclusion of the forty-ninth encampment of the G. A. R., was presented to the Veterans of Foreign Wars by Capt. J. Walter Mitchell, and accepted by the convention. ccepted by the convention
